>The Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) designation is the only internationally accepted designation for internal auditors and remains the standard by which individuals demonstrate their competency and professionalism in the internal auditing field. The CIA exams test a candidate's knowledge of current internal auditing practices and understanding of internal audit issues, risks and remedies. The Certification in Control Self-Assessment (CCSA) is a specialty certification program designed primarily for practitioners of control self-assessment (CSA). The Certified Government Auditing Professional (CGAP) is a specialty certification designed for and by public-sector internal auditing practitioners. The CIA certification has 4 parts. The CCSA exam and the CGAP exam are single part specialty exams. The CIA exam parts are: PART 1 - THE INTERNAL AUDIT ACTIVITY'S ROLE PART 2 - CONDUCTING THE INTERNAL AUDIT ENGAGEMENT PART 3 - BUSINESS ANALYSIS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PART 4 - BUSINESS MANAGEMENT SKILLS Do note that many of the CIA/CCSA/CGAP knowledge areas are overlapped (even though they are differently labeled). My suggestion is that you go through ALL TOPICS before taking any of the individual exam modules. Do NOT study on a per module basis. Instead, treat all of them as a whole - this will guarantee that you don't get tripped up when similar questions show up on different exam parts. And know the IPPF inside and out. Many correct answers come out from the IPPF. You want to know that starting from mid 2013 the CIA exam structure will be changed to a new 3-part format. HOWEVER, content-wise the new structure does not really have anything new. In fact, as said by IIA "the final change consists of a realignment of the exam content outline and question count for each part".

The Institute of Internal Auditors' (IIA's) International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF) is the authoritative guidance on the internal audit profession. The IPPF presents current, relevant, internationally consistent information that is required by internal audit professionals worldwide. The new IPPF features improved clarity, increased transparency, measurable accountability, a defined cycle of review for all guidance, and availability in hard copy and as a fully interactive CD-ROM.

The CIA certification is moving into a new structure with 3 parts, which are: Part 1 Exam: Internal Auditing Basics Part 2 Exam: Internal Audit Practice Part 3 Exam: Internal Audit Knowledge Elements The exam objectives are being "realigned" as well. Do keep in mind, in the world of Internal Auditing we have not seen any breakthroughs in methodology or technologies in the past 10 years. CCSA and CGAP are single part specialty exams. If you have strong background in internal auditing you will find these exams relatively easy. Note that we are dealing with the International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF), which is the conceptual framework that organizes authoritative guidance promulgated by the IIA. You just need to memorize it. The entire content can be viewed online via the official location: <http://www.theia.org/guidance/standards-and-guidance/> Do note that many of the CIA/CCSA/CGAP knowledge areas are overlapped (even though they are differently labeled). My suggestion is that you go through ALL TOPICS before taking any of the individual exam parts. And know the IPPF inside and out. Many correct answers come out from the IPPF.

This book discusses various common occupational and organizational fraud schemes, based on the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) fraud tree and assist fraud examiners and auditors in correctly choosing the appropriate audit tests to uncover such various fraud schemes. The book also includes information about audit test red flags to watch out for, a list of recommended controls to help prevent future fraud related incidents, as well as step-by-step demonstrations of a number of common audit tests using IDEAN® as a CAATT tool.
